

Andy Meyers – President, Shangri-La Entertainment and Industries

Andy Meyers graduated from the University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA) with a Bachelor of Arts degree. As an accomplished student athlete in UCLA's prestigious football program, Mr. Meyers excelled both on and off the field. He was honored as a two-time All-PAC 10 Guard, Third Team All-American, Academic All-PAC 10 and Academic All-District.

After graduating from UCLA, Mr. Meyers accepted an offer from the Buffalo Bills to explore a career in professional football, but ultimately made the difficult decision to leave upstate New York because of a personal desire to work in real estate and business development. Upon his return to California, Mr. Meyers obtained his real estate broker's license and began working on high-end residential properties in Bel Air, Beverly Hills and West LA. For the next three years, Mr. Meyers gained extensive experience in the commercial real estate sector, eventually leading him to a strategic management role with Shangri-La in the acquisition, construction and sale of a 12-acre project in Bel Air.

In addition to Mr. Meyers' involvement with Shangri-La real estate development, he has overseen Shangri-La Entertainment (Polar Express, Beowulf and Martin Scorsese's Shine A Light) and Shangri-La Music (Jerry Lee Lewis's Last Man Standing and The Pretenders' Break Up The Concrete) since their inceptions.

As current President of Shangri-La Industries, including its new Construction unit, Mr. Meyers recognizes the urgent need for cost-effective sustainable development and green innovation.
